Oktoberfest and Beer @ Bei Otto

Once again, we had a great luncheon with little to write up... so, to move to something most important to most of our club members, a short story about beer thanks to Wikipedia.

Since the 16th century, there have been strong regulations in Germany about brewing beer and how to keep up the high quality of the final product by choosing ingredients carefully. One of the oldest laws concerning food and drink are the Bavarian Purity Requirements, decreed by Duke William IV in 1516: Only water, hops and barley can be used to brew beer.

Only beer conforming to the Reinheitsgebot, at a minimum of 13.5% Stammwürze (approximately 6% alcohol) may be served at Oktoberfest. The beer must also be brewed within the city limits of Munich. Breweries producing Oktoberfest Beer under the criteria are Augustiner-Bräu, Hacker-Pschorr-Bräu, Löwenbräu, Paulaner-Bräu, Spatenbräu and Staatliches Hofbräu-München Augustiner was founded in 1328 and is the oldest Munich brewery. Later relocated to Landberger Straße, the brewery has a traditional Bräustüberl with low priced, Bavarian food.

Hacker Pschorr was founded in 1417 and grew to be the leading Munich brewery in the 18th century under Joseph Pschorr and Maria Theresia Hacker. After their deaths, the brewery was divided and was not reunified until the 1970s.

Wilhelm V founded Hofbräu in 1589. Originally the brewery was at the Platzl where the famous Hofbräuhaus, one the most important touristic attractions in Munich, can still be found. Later the brewery relocated to Wiener Platz, which remains one of the most beautiful Munich beer gardens, the Hofbräu Keller.

Löwenbräu originated in the 15th century in the Löwengrube. The company emerged to be one of the biggest breweries in the 19th century under the Brey Family. The brewery was relocated to Nymphenburger Straße and is near the popular beer garden Löwenbräu Keller at the Stiglmaierplatz.

Paulaner has been brewed since 1634 in the Paulaner monastery and therefore the most recent Munich beer. At first, the beer was only sold on public holidays. Today the brewery is on Nockherberg home to an annual stout-festival where politicians are roasted under the direction of a selected Brother Barnabas.

The Spate brewery was founded in 1397 in the Neuhauser Gasse. Today the brewery is located in Marsstraße and has been managed for 200 years by the Sedlmayr Family.

Official Inauguration Trip to Lopburi Wednesday, 23 October (National Holiday)

On this opportunity for club fellowship and to see how our club works with other clubs around Thailand and the world, join this heart-warming day trip and be part of the festivities in handing over 22 Saori Weaving Looms to autistic schools in Lopburi and nearby provinces.

Going up on Wednesday, 23 October, a national holiday, we will be taking along our partner from District 2670 Japan, Rtn Hidemi Shinoda who will join us on the trip to Lopburi.

He will arrive at Bangkok Airport on Wednesday, 23 October 2013, at 04:20 am and to make his arrival day especially entertaining, we will be hosting a welcome dinner for him on the same evening at around 19:00, perhaps at the Shangri-La Seafood Restaurant on Thaniya Road.

The project itself started for us when Rotary Club of Pranarai Lopburi, a Bangkok South only sister club in Thailand, approached us for assistance on this Matching Grant Project costing US$ 18,051.

Bangkok South contributed US$500 towards the project, and, obtained a US$3,000 contribution from RC Surfers Paradise Australia (a Bangkok South sister club) and another US$ 4,000 DDF contribution from District 2670 Japan (a Bangkok South major supporter).

Bangkok South played a vital role in getting the funding for this MG Project even though we are not the Host Partner, which is in fact RC Pranarai Lopburi, yet another Bangkok South sister club in Thailand.

These 22 Saori Weaving Looms will be donated to Lopburi Panyanukul School in Lop-buri Province, Nakornsawan Panyanukul School in Nakornsawan Province, Autistic Schools in: Nonthaburi Province, Uthai Thani Province, Chainat Province, Nakornnayok Province and Pathumthani Province.

Any Bangkok South members who would like to join the Official Inauguration Ceremony in Lopburi OR the Welcome Dinner at Shangri-La Seafood Restaurant, please call Khun Khob or Krit.

For the trip to Lopburi, we may hire a van if we have a good number of participants.
