Coins on Silom Stories Committee Members along with Coins' Friends and Supporters

Last Friday was a good turnout by Bangkok South Rotarians, their wives, Other Clubs and Ex Rotarians.

I was really proud to see so many older members, some who were not in the best of health but made the effort to support our club.

Also old friends like Mark Wolf, Per Dibber, Sean Brady, John Allen, Junior Shaw and Graham Brain came back to us for the day.

Some of the older guys such as Chris and Mark worked the whole day, being refreshed by coffee after their legs gave out.

Geoff unexpectedly turned up from hospital. Our Stalwarts Tom Baker and Morgan also worked the whole day.

This year PP Nick organized the Rotaractors and we will develop his ideas next year.

There were 53 Bangkok South

Rotarians on the day, most worked on the street while some worked behind the scene, in the counting room, working the stage and entertainment, transporting helpers and of course Mike Ellis's crew who started at 3.00 am putting up the stands and laying down the red tape.

It is often remarked that Westerners will not donate, so our intrepid PP John Quarmby took up the challenge and managed to get at least one to donate 100 Baht. He says the secret is to show them the flyer which some will read and then come back to give.

Mark Wolf exercises his entrepreneurial skills on the street. Last year he persuaded a Thai lady in a car to give him 10,000 Baht and this year one gave him 1,000 Baht. This is some smooth talking guy.

Finally at HQ, walking around the street and later at COSMO. we had fun. We got to see and spend time with friends we don't always have time for which is great.

Thank you all and your partners and friends.
