Rangsan Thammanee Wong

When Fast is Slow and Slow is fast (EST)

Our speaker today, Rangsan Thammanee Wong, is a man of many interests. Beginning his talk with an overview as to what he does, he explained that he helps executives answer two questions, 1) where do we go from here 2) how do we get there?

He went on to describe that in business the first question deals with strategy and direction.

The second, he continued, deals with the idea that if you know where to go, the next natural question is “how to get there as fast as one can?”

Leading into his story about ‘EST’, Rangsan talked about how when we have problems, the normal thing is to solve them as fast as we can, “something cannot be rushed through, like growing trees, building relationships or even keeping a relationship intact.”

He went on to talk about how the local bottler had been the exclusive bottler for Pepsi for almost 60 years of its history in Thailand and that this is one of a very few markets in which Pepsi is bigger than Coke.

As most of us know, the local bottler for Pepsi and Pepsi itself, after months of negotiations, found a win-win solution so that they could leave the negotiating table content with what had been decided and what to do next.

While it would be interesting to know more about how this came about, what is most important is the final solution; Pepsi has control of its own product in Thailand and its former bottling partner has their own brand on the market. Maybe win-win after all.

Thursday, 20th February 2014, Thana City Golf and Sports Club

Tel: 02 632-9160 Email: info@rotarybangkoksouth.org

Join Us Again

Every year we attract about 150 players, last year 158 players joined us, for our annual Charity Golf Tournament. This event has become the golf highlight of the year for fellowship, fun, good food and drinks, and great golf.

This year's tournament will be held at Thana City Golf and Sports Club. We will meet at 10-11.30 a.m. for registration and a noodle breakfast at the club's restaurant.

There is a shotgun T-off at 12:15 p.m. and the format is scramble with teams of 5 players. There are awards for the overall results, longest drive, nearest to the pin and few other ways to test your skills.

Snacks and refreshments will as usual be provided on the course. In the evening, we start with cocktail from 18:00 - 19:00 followed by a buffet dinner is served at the club house. During dinner we distribute the various tournament awards; draw prizes and give away a few gifts. It is a great event for a good cause and should not be missed. Please join us.
