Classification Interviews Rtn Stuart Lucani ↔ Rtn Dougie Riach

from Rootes.)
Sport was next with Stuart talking about water polo, judo, tennis and of course, yacht racing, which he fell in love with when he was six. Working his way through the dinghy classes, he moved to keelboats and was also coxswain on a life-saving boat in South Africa. Car racing - while Stuart raced on tracks for six-months, Dougie was involved in rallying for a number of years.

in the same year.
The Boys' Brigade (BB) is an interdenominational Christian youth organization, conceived by Sir William Alexander Smith to combine drill and fun activities with Christian values. Following its inception in Glasgow in 1883, it quickly spread across the UK and became a worldwide organization by the early 1890s.

Rallying, his real love, kept Dougie away from home racing, preparing and doing PR. With many of the great names in the sport, Dougie was certainly in the center of things.

The two concluded an informative session with a heart-felt overview of how important Rotary is for them and advised others in the club to visit other clubs.

Dougie's closing story about playing golf with Arnold Palmer and Tom Watson, who he met at a Rotary meeting had many of us entranced and amazed and certainly reflects an amazing make-up bonus.

Dougie, it turned out, also had a Sunbeam, but a Rapier, which he was quick to crash into a hospital. So, as the title suggested, Boys and Their Toys.

Boys and Their Toys

Stuart Lucani, Cape Town, South Africa, Professional Yachtsman and Dougie Riach, Glasgow, Scotland, Financial Services, interviewed each other in a back-and-forth banter centered, it appeared to many of us, on toys – in particular cars.

Both married for a second time, the two are enjoying a second round of marital bliss, making them well within the norm in the club.

Stuart went first and described how he met his first wife, intertwined with his story about his two-seater Alpine Sunbeam Mark 1. (The Sunbeam Alpine is a sporty two-seat open car

Both Dougie and Stuart went into interesting stories about how they met their second wives. Nice stories, they reflect modern, computerized life and dating patterns.

Dougie explained how he wanted to be a police officer, but due to a half-inch shortfall, he couldn't make it in. The ministry, Church of Scotland, was another idea based on the fact he'd enjoyed teaching Sunday School. This, however, did not turn out to be a good idea as his Sunday mornings were more liquid-oriented than spiritual. However, Dougie did spend 29 years in the Boy's Brigade where he earned the Duke of Edinburgh Award and the Queen's Award

Flashback

Rtn Rakesh, Rtn Ravi and PP Maarten looking sharp in their co-ordinated look: black jackets and white shirts.

Two smirks and a smile. P Michael, Perpetually Visiting Rtn John and Rtn Patrick comply in varying ways to the photographer's request.

Rtn Lars, our newest Rotarian, congratulated my P Michael on joining the club.

Guest, Verner Hanson, Rtn Lars's father and P Michael recover from the alcoholic 'treat' P Michael likes to 'share' with our new members.
