Coins on Silom 2010 Huge Success as 1.67+ M Baht Raised

Another very successful Coins on Silom has come to a great conclusion, with just over 1,675,000 Baht raised, making 2010 the third best Coins celebration to date with the total raised more than 330,000 Baht over last year's total.

It is interesting to note that 38% of our gross income (1.9M or up by 300K) came from club sources, that is, from members or their companies, while a whopping 62% came from non-member sources.

Once again, this clearly demonstrates Coins is not being sponsored solely by our own members, but rather substantially by individuals and companies outside of our immediate Rotarian family.

This year's team, led by PP Nart Liuchareon, with a huge contribution by his Personal Assistant Khun Ratikorn Suekumnerd (Tang), included both old and new participants: Manu Mekdhanasarn, P Andrew MacPherson,

Gary White, Alastair Timblich, John Watson, Adrian To-pham, Michael Ellis, Mark Marshall, Dana Caron, Rudy van der Hoeven, Ty-rone Jenkins, Rakesh

Sodhia and Billy Popham.

The 62 Rotarians who made it to Silom, along with the volunteers, students and friends who gave their time so generously on the day, helped to raise 260,341 Baht in street-based donations, which was up marginally on last year. Interestingly, the actual amount of coins continues to decline, and this year was another percent lower, at just 11% of the total street take.

As in past years, our sponsorship played a huge role in helping us reach our goals and this year came in at 1,575,000 Baht, up

365,000 Baht on last year.

2010 Sponsorships included one event sponsor, 6 platinum, 22 gold, 14 silver and 24 stand sponsors who, for the most part donated cash, but, in some cases, gave in kind.

From this impressive total, PP Nart obtained or gave 405K Baht, (26%), Rtn Alastair obtained or gave 167K Baht, (11%) and Rtn Tyrone gave 120K Baht (8%).

Expenses were unchanged from last year, at 253K Baht, giving an expense to gross income ratio of 13.1%.

Participation on the day was 58 active members out of 81, or 72%, and if we include exempt members, participation increased to 62 Rotarians, but dropped to 57%.
